

Selling Parish Council presents:

D-Day 80th Anniversary

1940s Evening

Thursday 6 June 2024 from 6.00 pm - 10.00 pm
Selling Village Hall

Dress Code - Military or civilian 1940s (if you can) with prizes for best dressed.

On stage the fabulous Utility Jude gives her unique personal reflection, through cookery, of life in 1940s Britain.

Acclaimed historian Dr. Emma Hanna, senior lecturer at the University of Kent, offers an illustrated presentation of how D-Day was handled by the 1940s media.

- ⇒ Enjoy a glass of prosecco or orange juice on arrival
- ⇒ Fish & chips supper, with homemade wartime cake
- ⇒ Wildbox cash bar with 1940s cocktails, beer & wine
- ⇒ National Tribute and Lighting of our Peace Lamp
- ⇒ 1940s music, quiz and piano singalong

Tickets £5 each on sale to Selling residents from Monday 15 April. Cash only please. From: The Sondes, White Lion, Cadman's Coffee, and Parish Councillors:

sue.henderson@sellingparishcouncil.gov.uk and kevin.hobson@sellingparishcouncil.gov.uk