

SELLING PARISH COUNCIL

Working with our community, for our community

Selling Parish Council are applying for the footpath that runs between the back of Selling Railway Station & Fox Lane, locally known as 'Cinders Path' to be adopted as a public right of way by Kent County Council.

This would mean that KCC would be responsible for maintaining the path.

As part of the application evidence is required that it has been regularly walked by people for 20 years or more.

If you have regularly walked this path for over 20 years, please contact the parish clerk.
